The Court's Order further directed the United States to provide notice to any persons known to assert an interest, as well as publishing notice stating the intent of the United States to dispose of the property in accordance with the law, and further notifying all third parties of their right to petition the Court within thirty (30) days for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of their alleged legal interest in the property.

Notice of this forfeiture and the requirements for filing a claim for the property was published on the government's website at www.forfeiture.gov for thirty (30) consecutive days beginning on March 7, 2019, through April 5, 2019, for at least 18 hours per day. A copy of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture was also provided to the following parties:

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the right, title, and interest to the property described above is hereby condemned, forfeited, and vested in the United States of America, free and clear of the claims of any person, including Dragos Constantin Badea, and shall be disposed of according to law.

That upon entry of this order, the United States Secret Service, or other appropriate federal agency, is directed to deliver the above-described property to the United States of America for disposition according to law.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States District Court shall retain jurisdiction in the case for the purposes of enforcing this Order.

DATED this 16th day of October, 2019.
